"Happy are those . . . whose sin is covered."

Zacchaeus was amazed to find that Jesus had forgiven his sins. Psalm 32:1 says our sins are covered. Find out what it is that covers our sins by coloring the leaves with an x in the leaf pile.

If you live in a place where leaves fall this time of year, rake them up and play in them. Can you cover yourself with leaves?

This week

Imagine welcoming Jesus into your home as Zacchaeus did. Set a place for Jesus at the table.

Welcome to worship.

Jesus surprised me!

I climbed a tree to see him, but he saw me. I just wanted to listen to his words but he came to be a

guest at my house. Jesus

changed

my life!

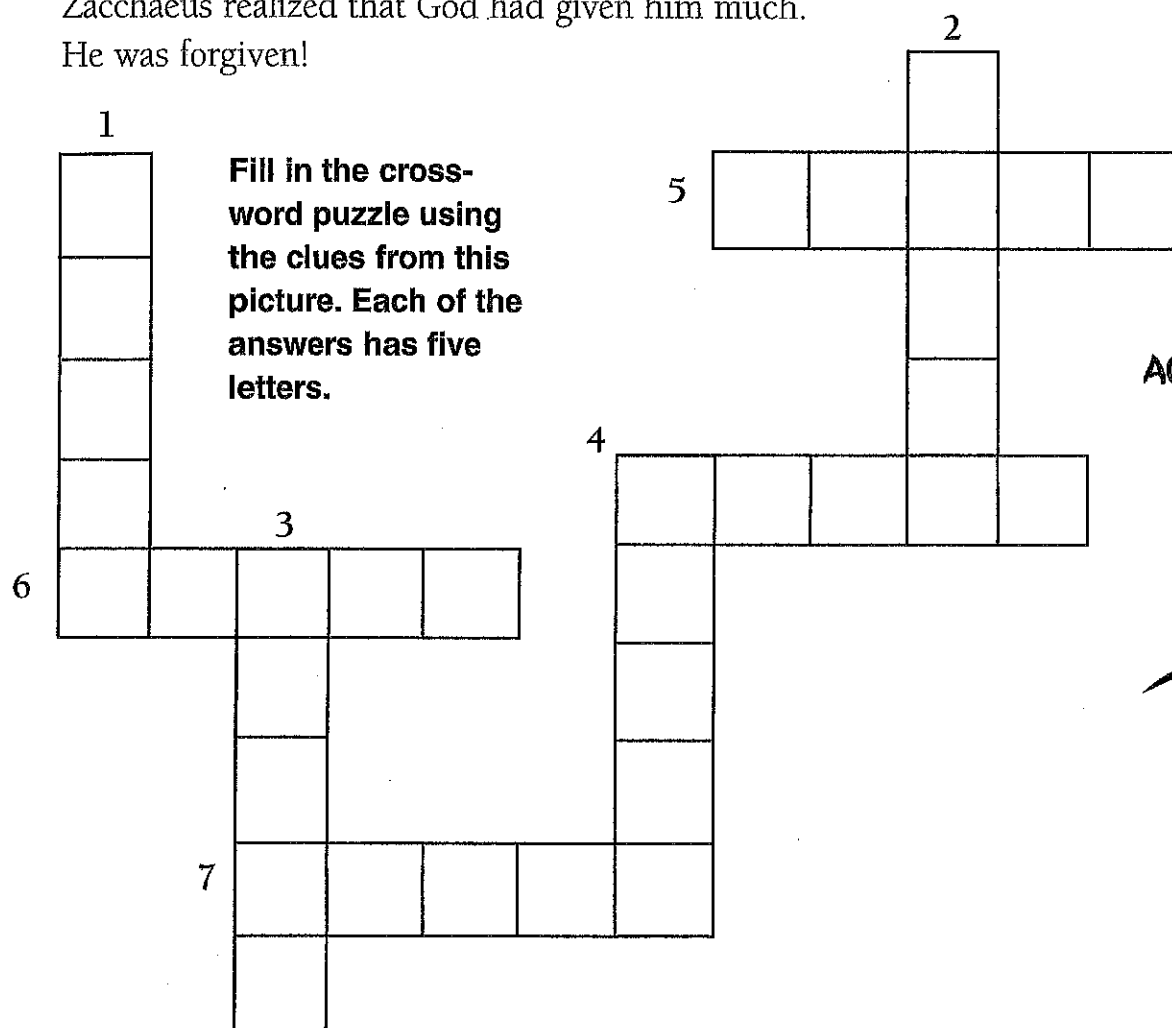

Who am I? My name is hidden in the tree, just like I am.

P.S. My name is hard to spell. Check out Luke 19:1-10.

Zacchaeus welcomes Jesus

Zacchaeus realized that God had given him much.
He was forgiven!

Fill in the cross-
word puzzle using
the clues from this picture. Each of the answers has five letters.

Use your five fingers to count five things God has given you.

Thank you, God, for your forgiveness and all that you give us. Amen
